

Project 1 - Evaluating the impact of stock market development on industry

Development I (Industrial policy)

1. Project

In recent years, the government has made many efforts to develop the stock market. One of the important goals of this issue has been the financing of various sectors of the economy, including industry. In this project, you are asked to examine the effect of the development of the Iranian stock market on the industry. You may want to focus on a specific section, or check out several. And you can make use of any method and software you like.

2. Essay question

What effect has the development of the stock market in other countries had on the industrial sector? Another goal of the government to develop the stock market is to improve social welfare. Has the government been able to achieve this goal? Discuss about the reasons. (500 words)